New Erismann collection “MIX UP”

Spontaneous, laid-back and varied

The designs in the MIX UP collection are young, contemporary and are oriented towards current home interior trends and lifestyles. Laid-back skylines with chic lustrous appliqués can be found here as well as exotic cactus motifs, which convey a touch of Mexican serenity. Romantic floral patterns as a chic panel and fresh leaf motifs create a relaxed atmosphere.

Lovers of clear designs will also find what they like. An expressive graphic with 3D effect and a geometric retro motif with a refined silver shimmer provide an urban flair. The wide colour palette offered by MIX UP also leaves nothing to be desired. Three plain textures in a sophisticated look show off colours from fresh and stimulating, to powdery pastels through to warm and natural. A choice of colours to suit every taste.
