New Erismann collection “HACIENDA”

Walls for globetrotters

When it comes to current home furnishing trends, the ethno style is among the front runners. No wonder, as the trend reflects the yearning for far-away countries in one's own home. With just a few souvenirs, some green plants and lovingly chosen accessories, accents can be excellently set. Almost equally as quick and easy to implement: Walls in the ethno look.

The non-woven wallpapers in the Hacienda collection are just the right choice for globetrotters and those longing to travel. South American motifs and relaxed, summer colours characterise the style of the collection. An exuberant leaf motif conjures up a Mexico feeling on the wall. The ultimate Aztec look is created by a colourful diamond pattern, which gives a fresh kick to any living style.

In contrast, an elegantly reduced ethno graphic has an introverted appearance. Sophisticated colour compositions in pastel pink or bronze-petrol underline the airy character of the motif. A discreet all-over ornamentation plays elegantly with gloss-matt effects and is reminiscent of a ritual Mayan amulet.

Two chic plain structures in many natural colours can be universally combined with the patterns and complement the Latino feeling of this extravagant non-woven collection.

Available until: 2020 | Material: Non-woven wallpapers | Contents: 42 wallpapers
